December Quarterly Activities Report

The Carajas Copper Company Limited (“the Company”) is pleased to provide its report for the quarter ended 31 December 2015.

Brasil

During the quarter, the Company continued to evaluate potential opportunities in Brasil both within its existing portfolio of assets and elsewhere and as a result has been involved in discussions with a number of third parties. To date, those discussions have not been concluded.

Mongolia

The realization process for the projects and assets in Mongolia is continuing with sale and or joint venture partners being sought.

In addition the Company is continuing to actively pursue amounts owed to it by debtors in Mongolia. The outcome of these discussions remains unclear, however the Company continues to work on realising value for these assets.

Corporate

Post quarter end, Mr Nick von Schirnding resigned from the position of Chief Executive Officer effective 19 January 2016. Mr Nick von Schirnding will remain on the Board as a Non-Executive Director of the Company.

Matthew Wood
Chairman
